

Downloading Browser - Opera

(Please note that downloading applications that are available for free, similar method might apply)

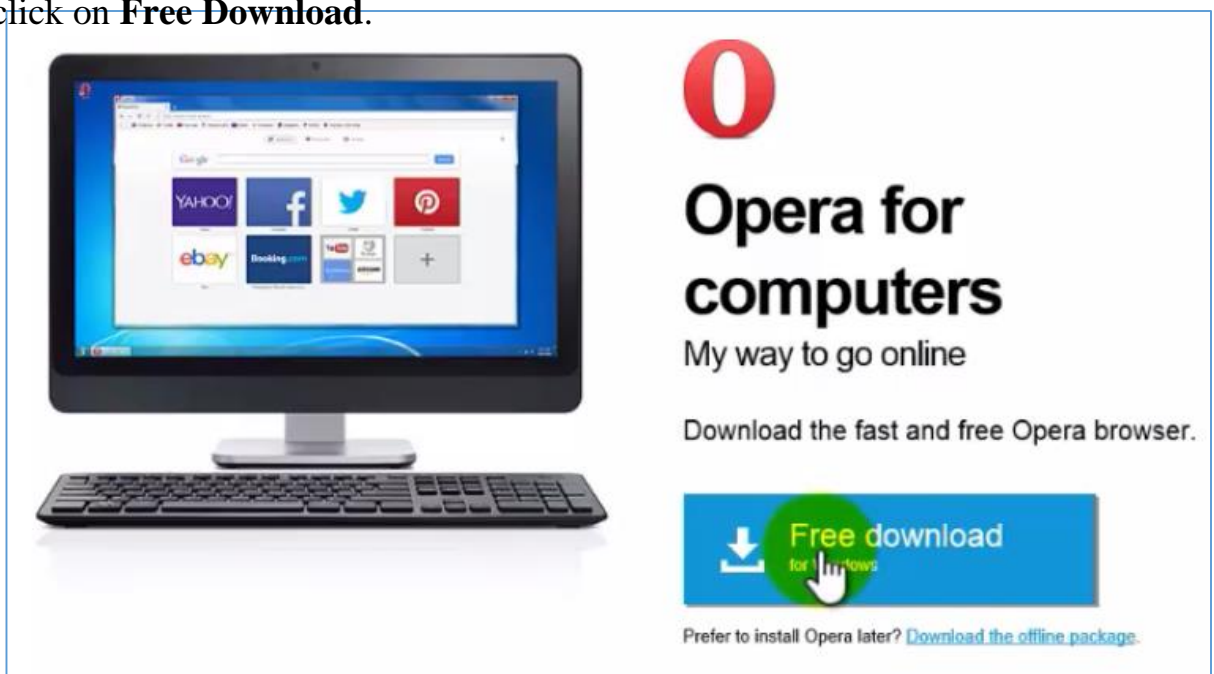

1) Go Google search engine.

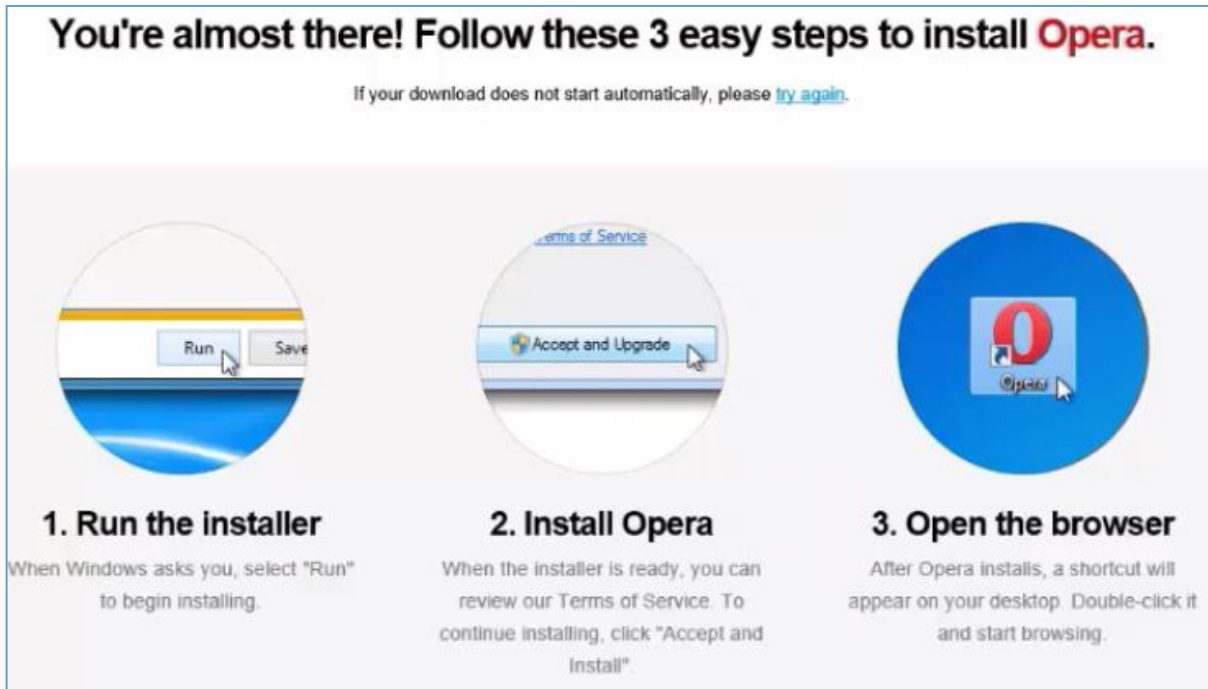

2) Type in download opera.

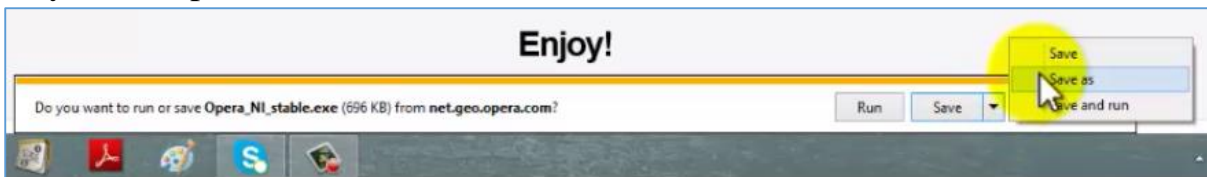

3) When you click on the above, you should be directed to below page. If you are click on Free Download.

4) Wait until it loads. If loading fails, click on try again.

5) If loading is successful, the below window should appear at the bottom of the page. Where you select run to install straight away, save or save as to save setup on your computer.

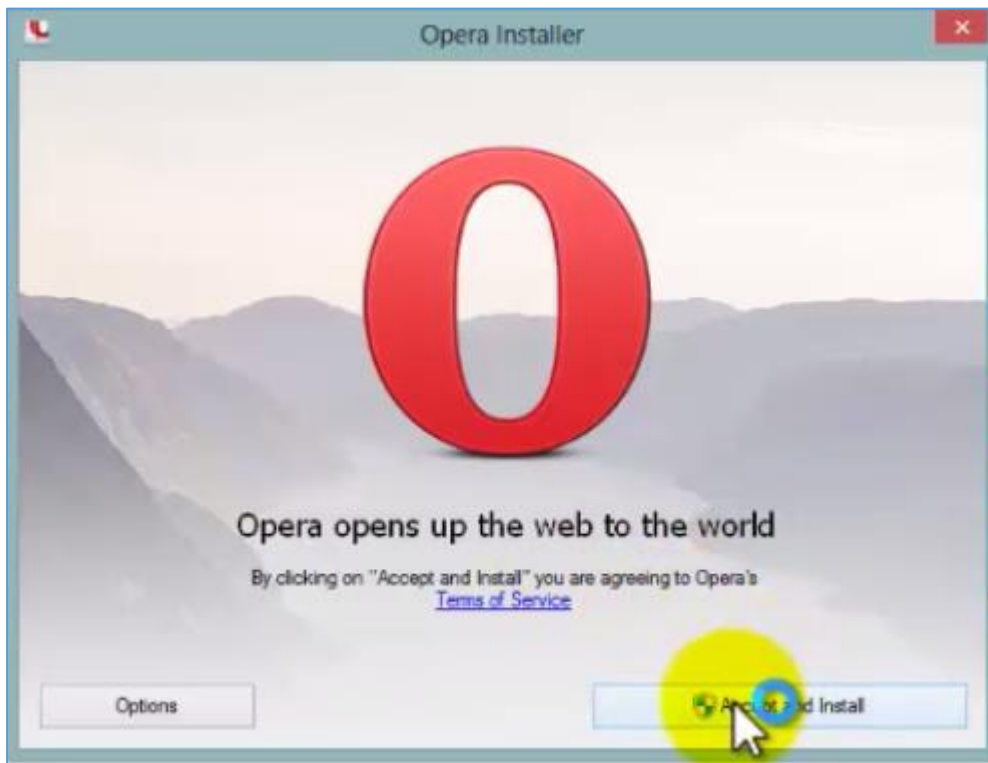

6) If you click save as, the above window should appear, where you choose your location click Save. Then find your setup and double click.

7) If you click run after the above window appears, your installation will begin when your download is finished.

8) Below is illustration, how setup window might look. When you see window similar to this, you need to click on Accept and Install. By doing that you are also accepting their terms and conditions.

9) Below is an example of what happens when you accept to install. Once the installation is complete, find your application and double click to open it. Sometimes applications tend to open automatically when installation is complete.

